WATCHING their new home, Nayland vicarage, being blessed by the Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Rt Rev L. W. Brown, on Wednesday evening were the Rev John M. Wade, Mrs Wade and their two youngest children, seven-year-old twins Celia and Martin.

Mr and Mrs Wade, who have four children, moved recently from the 20-room 19th century former vicarage next door. Mr Wade has been vicar of Mayland for ten years.

The new, neo-Georgian, vicarage was designed by Colchester architects Duncan Clark and Beckett. The builder, who was also at the blessing, was Mr H. G. Underwood.
